

COMPANY PROFILE

A story of grit, passion, tools and craftsmanship excellence.

THE FOUNDER & CEO

At the tender age of 17, Navin Sehgal embarked on a journey into the captivating world of leather goods, working for a well-known leather export house before ascending to a senior position in quality inspection for a distinguished foreign conglomerate.

The turning point came in 1999 when Navin decided to pen his own chapter. Armed with a vision to revolutionize the leather goods landscape, he founded a factory that became the canvas for his ideals. This wasn't just a business venture; it was a commitment to rectify the flaws he had witnessed firsthand – the lapses in product quality, delayed deliveries, and the neglect of customer service and work conditions.

Navin's promise was bold – to build a factory that set the gold standard for values, service excellence, and adherence to international compliance standards for social and environmental responsibility. It was a journey fraught with challenges, but one that he navigated with unwavering determination.

Navin Sehgal

Beyond the factory walls, Navin's heart beats for philanthropy. Regularly weaving charity into his narrative, he extends his support to causes close to home, especially those dedicated to uplifting the lives of the people of India.
